

At First Security State Bank, the health and well-being of our customers, employees, and communities is our top priority. We understand the concern and uncertainty you may have been experiencing surrounding the coronavirus (COVID-19) and are committed to being responsive to the needs of our customers and employees as the situation evolves.

As our lobbies are reopening, we ask that you please not enter the bank if you are feeling ill, if you have a temperature or had a temperature in the last 24 hours.

We have taken certain precautions to allow for social distancing, including markings on the floor, limited lobby seating and extending our new account desks. Our employees are trained to practice health and safety protocols such as hand washing and sanitizing all areas of the bank for your safety.

As with anything it, is impossible to mitigate all risks. Customers who choose to do so, may enter the bank wearing a mask, however, be aware that it may be necessary for you to lower your mask momentarily for identification purposes.

Remember, if you are not comfortable entering the bank, the following options are also available for your convenience:
